You may not sell or modify our site material or reproduce, display, publicly perform, distribute, or otherwise use the material in any way for any public or commercial purpose. The names, marks, and logos appearing on this website are, unless otherwise noted, trademarks owned by or licensed to RIMS. The use of these marks, except as provided in these terms and conditions, is prohibited. If you violate any of these terms, your permission to use the site material automatically terminates and you must immediately destroy any copies you have made of the material.

25. EXHIBITION POLICY/NO SUITCASING

Any conference visitor who is observed to be soliciting business in the aisles or other public spaces, in another company's booth, or in violation of any portion of the Rules and Regulations, will be asked to leave immediately. Additionally, penalties may be applied. Please report any violations you may observe to Show Management. Show Management recognizes that suitcasing may also take the form of commercial activity conducted at an official RIMS sanctioned event. For the purposes of this policy, suitcasing violations may occur at venues other than the exhibition floor and at other events.

RIMS Outboarding Policy

Outboarding is defined as any non-permanent exhibit, demonstration, event, or branded activity that lasts for more than one day during RISKWORLD 2024, and events and activities that occur outside of contracted space with RIMS. This includes events at hotel suites, meeting rooms, ballrooms, restaurants, clubs, etc.

RISKWORLD 2024 is organized so that the industry partners can showcase and demonstrate their latest products and services, meet with existing clients, and generate new leads. Nearly 10,000 delegates attend RISKWORLD, and our sponsors and exhibitors work hard to accomplish their goals: brand recognition and business development. However, the integrity of the show is diminished, and the value becomes diluted when companies seek - in an unofficial capacity - to "piggyback" off RISKWORLD without directly partnering with RIMS.

RISKWORLD 2024 REGISTRATION TERMS & CONDITIONS

Outboarding is unethical, and unfair and should not be enabled or tolerated in any capacity. RIMS works diligently to protect our exhibitors' and sponsors' investment in the conference by taking a firm stance against outboarding. We encourage official exhibitors to host parties and special events to enhance RISKWORLD 2024 before and after show hours, but these activities should never be functions that compete against those who are making an additional investment in their brand at RIMS. During show hours, it is strictly prohibited to conduct education inside of meeting rooms or to promote any activity that directly competes with RISKWORLD 2024. Sponsorship activation spaces and cafes within the confines of the RIMS space are opportunities to position brands and offer customers heightened experiences.

Companies who outboard inconvenience attendees and hurt the overall industry. Outboarding violates RIMS policy and goes against the International Association of Exhibitions and Events (IAEE) guidelines and best practices. When RIMS determines that outboarding has occurred, RIMS will enforce the rule against the participating company and may impose penalties for violations.

RIMS offers a variety of opportunities outside of the exhibit hall, including suites, hotel rooms, convention center spaces, and event venues. We are committed to working with any industry entity to help our partners achieve their strategic goals as it relates to the risk and business insurance disciplines.

TO OUR MEMBERS AND ATTENDEES: we ask that you decline invitations that conflict with official RIMS activities and programming, and that you report violations to RIMS. The more that these unsupportive competing events take place, the more it erodes the integrity of RISKWORLD. It is important to remember that all these events exist because of RISKWORLD's presence. Any company that is not exhibiting or sponsoring the conference is "coat-tailing" off of the RIMS experience, often in an aggressive manner with guerilla marketing efforts purposefully intent on detracting from RIMS and RISKWORLD. These practices damage the RIMS experience, and the partners and companies that significantly invest in the entire industry by participating in RISKWORLD. Thank you for your support to RIMS and for your efforts to stop these damaging practices.

Under 21 Registration Code of Conduct
